Acceptance of Purchase Orders

POs incorporating these Terms and Conditions constitute the Buyer’s offer to Supplier for the purchase of Products and Services and may be accepted only in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. In addition, acceptance shall be conditional on the satisfaction of specific regulatory requirements as set out in the applicable Exhibit. Subject to aforesaid, Supplier shall be deemed to have accepted this offer and these Terms and Conditions in their entirety without modification upon the earlier of: (a) Supplier providing Buyer with written acceptance of the PO; (b) Supplier commencing performance under the Purchase Order; or (c) five (5) business days after issuance by Buyer. Upon Supplier’s acceptance, the PO becomes a valid and binding agreement between the Parties. Buyer is not bound by Supplier’s order acknowledgement or acceptance forms, quotations, invoices, counter offers or other documents which propose any terms or conditions in addition to or differing from those set out here, irrespective of whether Supplier's terms are in written or electronic form. Buyer objects to any such terms and conditions of Supplier. Any terms or conditions proposed by Supplier or contained on a website, product or service brochure, other ordering document, or in any “shrink-wrap” or “click wrap” agreement are void and of no effect unless agreed to in writing by Buyer as part of the PO.
