Chris Huang

Executive Chef

The Venetian Resort Las Vegas

Born and raised in Taipei, Taiwan, chef Chris Huang discovered his passion for cooking at a young age, setting the course for a culinary journey that would take him around the world.

His culinary education began at the Private Industry Business Vocational High School in Taipei. Seeking to broaden his horizons, Chris ventured to the United States to attend Le Cordon Bleu in Pasadena, California. During his formative years, he honed his skills during an internship at the prestigious Ritz-Carlton at Lake Las Vegas, working diligently through various kitchen stations and gaining valuable experience.

Chris's culinary adventure truly took off when he joined the team at two of the world's most acclaimed establishments: Michelin-starred chef Joël Robuchon's L'atelier de Joël Robuchon and Joël Robuchon restaurants. He also lent his talents to the renowned Alex Stratta's 2-Star Michelin Alex Restaurant at the Wynn.

In 2009, Chris returned to L'atelier, where he was appointed as the Executive Sous Chef, further elevating his culinary expertise and dedication to delivering the highest quality cuisine.

Always eager to explore new challenges and facets of the culinary world, Chris shifted his focus to become the Chef de Cuisine at The Venetian Resort in 2013. In this role, he took charge of overseeing corporate functions, off-site events, and special occasions, showcasing his wealth of professional experience and personal skills.

In 2017, Chris assumed the role of Executive Banquet Chef at one of the city's most high-volume banquet operations, demonstrating his ability to excel in demanding culinary environments.

In early 2024, Chris was honored and welcomed into the Académie Culinaire de France.

Today, Chris proudly serves as the Executive Chef at The Venetian Resort, where his culinary journey continues to evolve, and he remains dedicated to delivering exceptional dining experiences.

WELCOME

Jason Bandle

Chef de Cuisine
The Venetian Resort

Chef Jason Bandle was born and raised in Las Vegas, Nevada. He learned his passion for cooking at a young age, assisting his grandmother in the preparation of baked goods and his mother in the kitchen with family meals.

His culinary expedition began working in a scratch kitchen here in the valley, where he quickly realized his love for cooking and pleasing others. Learning all aspects of food preparation seemed to come naturally and felt like the kitchen was where he was destined to be. Chef Jason continued his development in a French bistro where he was trained in classic French cuisine.

In 2013 he joined The Venetian Resort as a sous chef for In-Suite Dining where he continued to develop his craft and gained the high-volume experience needed to lead and mentor his team. Currently in his role of Chef de Cuisine he's very proud of the huge volumes his team at The Venetian Resort can serve while maintaining high-quality cuisine guests can savor.
